All Ivy Environmental and Sustainable Development Career Fair

About

Each year, the eight Ivy League schools come together to address a specific and pressing on- or off-campus problem. We provide unique access to students who have the skills and knowledge to address the complex, multifaceted and diverse challenges of our global economy.

This year we tackle the sustainability and climate change and Sustainable Development Career Fair. This is the perfect time for employers and job seekers to connect and discuss career opportunities associated with sustainability and climate.

Format

The 2021 All Ivy Career Fair will take place on Friday, November 23, 2021.

The fair runs 9:30 AM - 3:30 PM ET in person on the Columbia University campus at Campus Career Fair - 2800 Broadway, NY, NY 10027. Additionally, students will have the opportunity to connect with employers through information sessions on Zoom starting on Monday, November 22nd and Tuesday, November 23rd via a link to be shared by email.

Participants

Students and Alumni

All Ivy League students and alumni are eligible to attend. The fair is open to all Ivy League students and alumni who are currently enrolled and seeking employment. Students must be a minimum of 18 years old and an employer must be a minimum of 10 years old to be eligible to attend.

Jobs of interest include but are not limited to:

- City, regional and environmental planning, design and policy
- Energy markets and environmental energy
- Green building and sustainable infrastructure development
- International and community development
- Product design, consumer goods and sustainability management

Over 1000 student registrants for last year's Career Fair will already be registered for the event. We will be able to welcome additional students.

Employers

Employers typically begin inquiring to participate in the All Ivy Career Fair in early fall, and the deadline to register is approximately 1-2 weeks out.
